

Who is part of a public power team?

Which role sounds most like YOU? Turn the page and picture yourself on the team.

Lineworker

Builds, maintains and repairs power lines and electrical equipment. Responds to outages and storms.

You might like it if you enjoy: outdoors, tools and teamwork.

Electrical Engineer

Plans and designs parts of the electric system and solves technical problems.

You might like it if you enjoy: math, science and design.

Business & Accounting

Tracks money, budgets purchases and records that keep the utility running.

You might like it if you enjoy: numbers, organization and planning.

Customer Service

Helps customers understand bills, programs and account questions. Helps customers during outages.

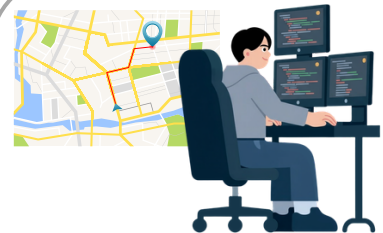

You might like it if you enjoy: people, listening and problem-solving.

Outreach & Communications

Explains outages, safety, programs and utility news to customers and the community.

You might like it if you enjoy: writing, fast-paced, media and people.

IT, GIS & Mapping

Uses computers, data and digital maps to support the electric system.

You might like it if you enjoy: technology, maps and puzzles.

Supplies, Inventory & Warehousing

Makes sure the utility has the materials tools and equipment it needs.

You might like it if you enjoy: organizing, equipment and logistics.

Utility Locator & Field Technician

Finds underground utility lines, collects data from the field and helps with building projects.

You might like it if you enjoy: outdoors, technology and accuracy.

Tree & Vegetation Management

Manages trees and vegetation around power lines to help keep the system safe.

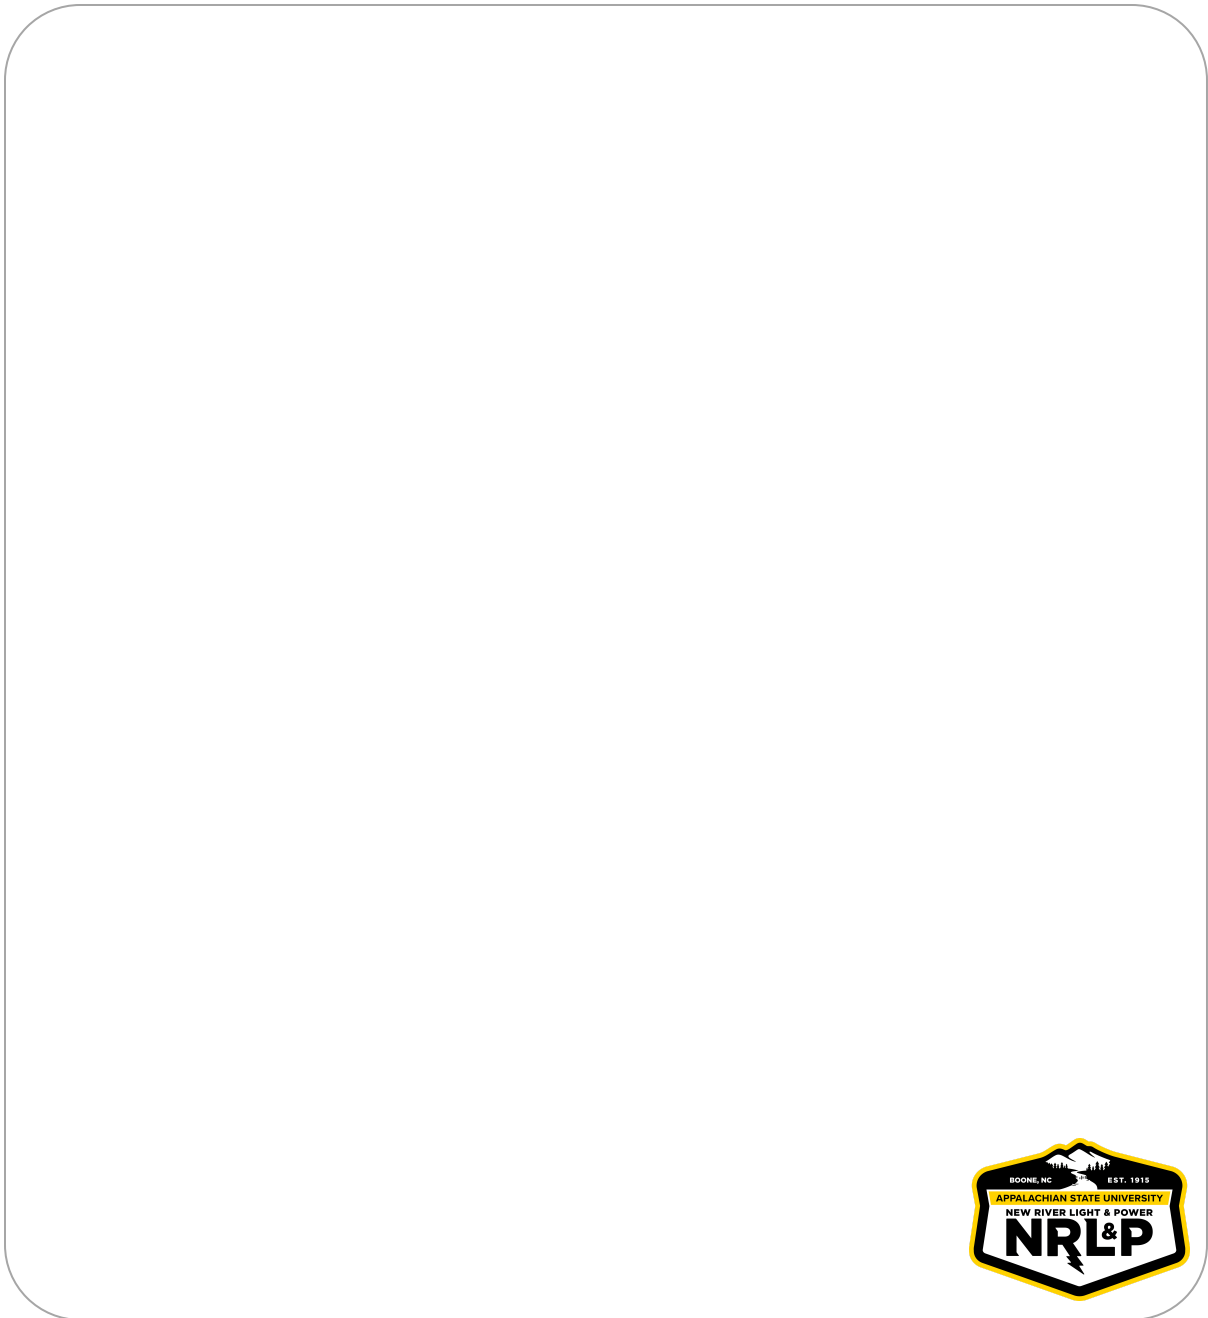

You might like it if you enjoy: outdoors, safety and hands-on work.

Who Would I be in Public Power?

Choose a career from the other side of this page or imagine another role that helps power your community.

MY PUBLIC POWER JOB: _____

Name: _____ Teacher & Grade: _____